FREEHELD follows the landmark legal battle of Lieutenant Laurel Hester, a dying New Jersey police officer, as she fights to transfer her pension benefits to her domestic partner. As her elected officials, The Freeholders, stand against her, and the town explodes around her, Laurel races against time to provide for the love of her life. A 2008 Oscar-winning film, FREEHELD won the Sundance Special Jury Prize and 13 other awards worldwide in 2007. Directed by Cynthia Wade, 38 min.
